

Stop. Observe. Ask. Respond to Human Trafficking.

Enhancing Community-Based Health Centers' Response to Human Trafficking

Monday, September 29, 2014
6:00pm – 8:00pm

Alameda Health Consortium/Community Health Center Network
101 Callan Ave, 1st Floor, Plaza A&B, San Leandro, CA 94577

Victims of human trafficking come into contact with the health care system every day, Health care professionals are in a critical position to identify and effectively respond to a wide-range of physical and psychological health issues stemming from inhumane living conditions, poor sanitation, inadequate nutrition, brutal physical and emotional attacks, dangerous workplace conditions, severe trauma, and general lack of quality health care.

This training is in partnership with the Department of Health and Human Services Administration for Children and Families (ACF) and the Office on Women's Health (OWH) under a pilot initiative of the five-year Federal Strategic Action Plan on Services to Victims of Human Trafficking in the United States, which calls for coordinated, victim-centered, culturally relevant, comprehensive, evidence-based, and trauma-informed care for victims and survivors. For more information visit: <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/endtrafficking>.

Learning Objectives:

1. Describe the scope, diversity, and types of human trafficking in the United States.
2. Recognize the common indicators and high-risk factors for human trafficking.
3. State how using trauma-informed techniques will enhance interaction with a potential victim of human trafficking.
