ALAMEDA HEALTH CONSORTIUM

The Alameda Health Consortium is the association of community health centers based in Alameda County that work together and support the involvement of our communities in achieving comprehensive, accessible health care and improved outcomes for everyone in the County. Our guiding principle is that all people have the right to accessible and affordable high quality health care that prevents illness, promotes wellness, and is sensitive to the unique needs of particular communities and cultures. We work together to deliver affordable, coordinated services that honor both the health care needs and the cultures of those we serve.

For more information about our organization please visit our website at www.alamedahealthconsortium.org.

COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTER NETWORK

Community Health Center Network (CHCN) is a partnership of eight community health centers in Alameda County committed to enhancing our ability to provide comprehensive quality health care in a manner respectful of community traditions and values. As a fully integrated managed care network, CHCN provides all managed care business functions for our member health centers: HMO contracting, primary care contracting, specialty care contracting, utilization management, membership reporting, quality improvement services, claims adjudication, capitation payment, centralized credentialing services, managed care information technology services, and financial data reporting.

For more information, please visit our website at www.chcnetwork.org.
