

SOCIAL DISTANCING

- Social distancing is a practice recommended by public health officials to stop or slow down the spread of contagious diseases.
- Forego nonessential meetings, outings, and travel.
- Avoid crowds such as conferences, concerts, and sporting events.
- Working remotely if possible.
- Keeping a distance of 6 feet or more when possible.

